Directory of state government services f

3 0864 00039547 8

December 29, 1981

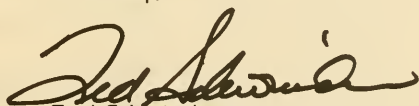

Dear Fellow Montanan:

1981 has been commemorated as the International Year of Disabled Persons. Montana has shared in the International Year through selected community-based and state-level activities to bring attention to the needs and contributions of our handicapped citizens.

During the IYDP, one project initiated by my administration was the compilation of this directory. The goal of "accessibility" reaches far beyond just physical barriers; it includes availability to the programs and people in government who can serve the special needs of the handicapped. In that spirit, we hope this directory helps to bind the link between state government and Montana's disabled citizens.

Since this directory is the first of its kind to be produced by the state, we welcome reactions as to its utility and suggestions for its improvement.

Sincerely,

Ted Schwinden
Governor

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Appreciation is extended to the state agency officials and statewide association representatives who provided the information included in this directory.

Special thanks goes to Vivian Crabtree who compiled the material under a special project coordinated by James Parker Shield on the Governor's staff, Cheryl Hutchinson of the Lieutenant Governor's office and Judith Carlson of the Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services.

Funds for publishing this directory were cooperatively provided by the following agencies:

DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATION

This department is responsible for providing administrative and technical assistance to all other departments in state government.

Architecture and Engineering Division and Building Codes Division

These divisions are responsible for providing barrier-free designs and construction of all public structures built or renovated in the state.

General Services Division

This division provides designated parking spaces for handicapped persons at all state facilities, keeps accessible entrances and interiors clear, and performs minor construction projects to help provide accessibility.

State Personnel Division

Within the Personnel Division is a Handicapped Employment Coordinator who is responsible for promoting and assisting state agencies to employ handicapped individuals by technical assistance or accessibility, accommodation, and personnel policies. This position provides staff service to the Governor's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

The Department of Commerce is responsible for promoting business development, improving the economic environment and eliminating or minimizing the barriers to economic development. This department has two divisions which provide services that directly affect the handicapped.

Transportation Division

The Planning and Assistance Bureau provides technical assistance to communities in developing accessible transportation programs. Federal funds administered by this bureau are used to purchase vehicles and equipment, and provide subsidy for the operation of local systems.

Economic and Community Development Division

The Housing Bureau administers the Section 8 housing program for Housing and Urban Development. This program provides a rent subsidy based on income and funds for structure changes so an apartment building or house can be made accessible.

OFFICE OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

The Office of Public Instruction is charged with overseeing the state's basic system of free public education in the elementary and secondary schools.

Department of Special Services

This department is responsible for recommending the policies for programs in special education to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Through general funds and federal funds, it provides assistance to local school districts for identifying and providing services to handicapped children.

Handicapped children, ages 6-18, are served by these educational services. Programs also may be established by the school district for ages 0-5 and 19-21.

Department of Vocational Services

Funds are available through competitive grants to local school districts and state-operated programs to assist handicapped students who are unable to succeed in regular vocational education programs or who require modifications of the regular programs.

STATE LIBRARY

One responsibility of the library is to provide reading material for the visually impaired and physically handicapped. The Montana State Library is also a regional library for the Library of Congress and provides staff and quarters for this purpose.

Library services for the print-handicapped individual include large-print or braille books, books recorded on record or tape, and any equipment necessary to use the records and tapes.

The library also owns a Kurzweil reading machine which it lends to local public libraries and other facilities.

Any person who, because of a physical or visual handicap is not able to read conventional printed material or to hold a book or turn a page, is eligible. The disability may be temporary or permanent.

To receive service it is necessary to fill in an application form, have it signed by a doctor, nurse, counselor or someone who can certify a handicapping condition, then return it to the library. There is no fee charged for the service or equipment.

Application forms may be obtained at the local library, rehabilitation office, or by writing:

MONTANA ARTS COUNCIL

The Montana Arts Council encourages the expansion of the creative arts as natural resources which must be preserved and promoted to advance our cultural legacy.

The Council can provide information, project funding, workshops and technical assistance to develop programs to serve the arts and cultural needs of the handicapped.

MONTANA SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF AND BLIND

The Montana School for the Deaf and Blind's program activities include a full academic curriculum leading to high school graduation, a comprehensive prevocational and career development program, and a specialized program for sensory multi-handicapped. Programming is to be integrated with local education agency program and services. Direct services include: diagnosis and evaluation, preschool, daily living skills, orientation and mobility, parent education, counseling, itinerant resource consultation, child study team participation, work education, leisure time/recreational programs, music/art education, athletic participation, dormitory life, and health and infirmary services.

If a child has a hearing or visual impairment that would prevent him or her from obtaining an education in an average classroom situation, if the parents agree and the child is certified to have such a handicap, the child is eligible for the services of the school.

DEPARTMENT OF FISH, WILDLIFE AND PARKS

This department is responsible for overseeing the management and preservation of our fish, wildlife and parks.

Fisheries Division

The Fisheries Division has free fishing licenses available for all severely disabled persons.

Many fishing access sites are accessible or partially so. In the spring of 1982 the department will have symbols in their Fishing and Recreation Guide Pamphlet to indicate which areas are barrier free.

Licenses may be obtained from:

Department of Fish, Wildlife and Parks
Fisheries Division
1420 East 6th Avenue
Helena, Montana 59620
449-3186

Parks Division

All Montana parks are included in plans to meet the accessibility regulations. Many are already accessible. An accurate Parks and Recreation Guide, which will symbol the barrier-free areas, will be available each spring.

Fees are charged for some overnight campsites and/or guided tours.

GOVERNOR'S OFFICE

Citizens' Advocate Office

Created to help make state government more accessible and responsive to the needs of Montanans, the Citizens' Advocate office has a toll-free telephone line so that anyone having a problem, complaint or question about state government can call for assistance or referral.

For information, call 1-800-332-2272.

Office of Budget and Program Planning

In addition to its primary role in budget preparation and monitoring, this office maintains a clearinghouse function in accordance with the federally imposed A-95 review necessary before an agency or local project can receive certain funds.

The A-95 review is intended to assure that a proposed project will not duplicate a program already available and that it is meeting a realistic need. In addition, proposers are asked to verify that programs will not discriminate against or be inaccessible to handicapped individuals. The A-95 review is a clearinghouse, not an enforcement, function; as such, it does not assure coordination but does provide an opportunity for coordination among interested parties.

Mental Disabilities Board of Visitors

The Board is charged by Montana law with reviewing patient care at Montana's community mental health centers and institutions for the mentally ill and developmentally disabled.

The Board periodically audits each program and institution to review treatment plans, patient care, physical facilities, admission and retention procedures, patient legal rights and patient grievances. Individuals with grievances may contact the Board.

A report of each formal site review is submitted to the facility director, Department of Institutions, and the Governor's Office.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES

The basic function and responsibility of this department is to protect and promote the health of the people of Montana.

The Health Services division has programs providing services to the handicapped, including cleft palate project, health screening and nutrition programs.

Health prevention programs, disease control (immunizations, etc.), maternal and child health care and consumer safety are examples of programs that will greatly reduce the numbers of handicapped individuals.

Any resident of Montana may participate in any health program. There may or may not be a small fee charged.

For more information:

DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS

The Department of Highways is responsible for construction and maintenance of highways and bridges, enforcement of highway safety and driver education.

The Department of Highways also is responsible for rest area accessibility. All rest areas along interstate highways are barrier free, as well as most rest areas along primary highways.

For further information on accessible rest areas and their locations:

State Highway Department
Information Bureau
2701 Prospect
Helena, Montana 59620
449-2492

DEPARTMENT OF INSTITUTIONS

This department is responsible for public mental health services, alcoholism and drug dependence treatment coordination and the operation of the state correctional programs.

Mental Health Division

Mental health treatment is offered to anyone in need. Handicapped individuals may have special accommodation if the facility is not barrier free. However, every effort is being made to assure all programs are accessible.

Any person residing in Montana will be able to find mental health care available in his or her community. If residential care is needed, a local program can contact the nearest facility.

A fee may be assessed on a sliding scale according to the ability to pay.

Residential services for the developmentally disabled are provided at Boulder River School.

For more information and the location of the programs:

Department of Institutions

Helena, Montana 59620
449-3964

Corrections Division

This division is responsible for administrative and rehabilitative programs in all juvenile and adult correctional institutions, adult probation and parole, juvenile aftercare and various community-based corrections facilities.

Accommodations are made for handicapped persons who have been committed to a correctional facility. If their medical needs are great, they would be confined to a state hospital or to the infirmary inside the facility. Individual rehabilitation plans are developed to meet a person's specific need.

Questions or requests for further information should be directed to:

Department of Institutions
Corrections Division
1539 11th Avenue
Helena, Montana 59620
449-5671

Alcohol and Drug Abuse Division

The division is responsible for establishing a comprehensive and coordinated program for the treatment of alcoholics, intoxicated persons, and family members.

The program includes:

- a. emergency treatment provided by a facility affiliated with or part of the medical service of a general hospital;

- b. inpatient treatment;
- c. intermediate treatment;
- d. outpatient treatment; and
- e. follow-up services.

Services are available in all fifty-six counties. No one is refused service for inability to pay; however, individuals are expected, within their personal financial limitations, to pay for treatment services received. Most programs have a sliding fee scale for services provided.

The division maintains a list of all approved public and private treatment facilities.

For more information or a list of approved programs:

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Motor Vehicles Division

This division provides two services for handicapped individuals.

A State of Montana identification card may be obtained by anyone over the age of 18, and not holding a valid Montana driver's license. Application can be made at County Treasurer's office or local exam station. Birth certificate is required.

The division is authorized to issue handicapped parking permits for $1.00 which enables a person to park an automobile in parking spaces reserved for the handicapped.

To qualify, a person must have a permanent specific handicap that restricts mobility when not in a motor vehicle.

Application forms for a parking permit may be obtained from a County Treasurer's Office or directly from:

Registrar of Motor Vehicles

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY

The Department of Labor and Industry is specifically concerned with employment, unemployment insurance, training, labor-management relations, conditions for workers and employee/employer rights.

Employment and Training Division

Comprehensive employment and training programs (CETA) target several groups, including the handicapped. CETA programs include on-the-job and classroom training, youth employment and training, and private sector initiative programs.

Any handicapped person who has been unemployed or underemployed for seven (7) consecutive days may apply for any comprehensive training program.

Contact the nearest Job Service or CETA office for employment assistance. Handicapped persons who need training may contact the nearest state vocational rehabilitation office (see page 22).

Job Service

Some of the services offered at Job Service offices are work evaluation, job counseling, advice to employers regarding reasonable accommodation, and ongoing assistance to a handicapped individual and the employer during and after placement.

Any handicapped person seeking new or upgraded employment should contact the nearest Job Service office.

A complete list of all Job Service Centers can be found on the following pages.

Workers' Compensation Division

This division provides protection via insurance for the worker and the employer.

Compensation insurance purchased by the employer provides the injured worker with cash benefits while he or she recovers, rehabilitation, aids and appliances, and assistance with employment when he or she is ready to return to the job market.

All persons employed in Montana should be covered by Workers' Compensation. For more information:

DEPARTMENT OF LANDS

This department has the responsibility for administering and managing state-owned lands, control of mining reclamation, forestry programs and forest protection on state and private lands.

Forestry Division

This division maintains a few overnight campgrounds, individual campsites and picnic sites on the 7 state forests. If any of these contain a structure, it will be made barrier free as funding permits renovation projects.

For information on locations of accessible sites:

Montana Division of Forestry
Department of State Lands

PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

The Public Service Commission regulates the rates and service of all utilities and transportation industries in the State of Montana.

Utilities Division

Special regulations regarding termination of service have been imposed by the Commission on electric and gas companies. Service may not be terminated during the winter months. Companies are charged with the responsibility of working with handicapped and elderly low-income persons to identify a schedule of payments that will not be a burden.

Free directory assistance is available to the visually handicapped by Mountain Bell. Application is made to the telephone company. A plastic card with a number is issued for use by the handicapped person in seeking telephone numbers through directory assistance.

Transportation Division

Non-profit and for-profit transportation systems are regulated by the Commission. These regulations are designed to protect the transportation provider from unfair competition and give the user an adequate, safe and usable system.

The Commission has a customer service representative available in the Helena office to assist the public with problems involving a public utility.

The Public Service Commissioners, representing five districts in Montana, want to hear from the consumers about problems.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

The responsibility of the department is to assess and collect taxes.

Income Tax Division

Under certain conditions individuals who have handicapped dependents may qualify for special deductions.

The state income tax form packet includes instructions regarding who is eligible and how to claim deductions. A toll-free number is available January 1 through April 15 each year.

Those who have handicapped dependents should be alert for the special deductions.

Property Assessment Division

There is a partial exemption from ad valorem taxes on personal homes and autos for certain handicapped individuals.

Veterans with 100% disability and some handicapped individuals meeting an income criteria may be eligible.

Contact the County Assessor's office for more information.

The Department of Revenue's staff in Helena will provide any assistance one may need to understand Montana's tax laws.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND REHABILITATION SERVICES

This department is responsible for the administration of many human service programs in Montana.

Rehabilitative Services Division

This is the principal state program to provide needed services to vocationally handicapped people of employable age to restore them to gainful employment.

Rehabilitative services provides goods and services necessary to render a handicapped individual fit to engage in a gainful occupation. These services may include but are not limited to evaluation, counseling, referral, restoration and training.

Two criteria determine eligibility: the presence of a mental or physical disability which results in a handicap to employment, and a reasonable expectation that vocational rehabilitation services may benefit the individual.

For further information:

Social and Rehabilitation Services
Rehabilitative Services Division

Disability Determination Bureau

This bureau is responsible for disability determinations on applications for Social Security Disability and Social Security Supplemental Income benefits.

This program is administered by the state for the federal Social Security Administration.

For further information:

Disability Determination Bureau
1330 Helena Avenue
Helena, Montana 59620
449-3054

Developmental Disabilities Division

The Developmental Disabilities Division is primarily responsible for providing community-based services to developmentally disabled individuals.

Community-based services can be but are not limited to, adult and child group homes, semi-independent living training, vocational training and sheltered workshop employment, and support services for families.

The SRS district offices, county welfare offices, health departments, and rehabilitation offices can provide information on services available or contact:

Social and Rehabilitation Services
Developmental Disabilities Division
111 N. Sanders
Helena, Montana 59620
449-2995

Community Services Division

Community Services Division administers the program for older Americans provided for by the Older Americans Act. This program provides valuable assistance to the elderly handicapped individual. Some of these services are home chores, outreach workers, and home-delivered hot meals. An amendment to the Older Americans

Act requires one to be 60 years of age to participate in the nutrition program. Donations can be accepted from participants but are not required. Contact the County Commissioners' office for the location of programs for the elderly.

This division is also responsible for administering programs such as protective services, foster care, adoption and day care.

The licensing of child care for handicapped children and subsidized adoptions of handicapped children are the two services of this bureau that most directly serve the handicapped.

Contact the local welfare office, the district SRS office or 449-3865 for further information.

Economic Assistance Division

This division supervises the Food Stamp program, Medicaid, and Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC). These programs may be available to disabled persons with minimal income. Application is made through the county welfare offices.

The low-income energy assistance program (LIEAP) is available through human resource development councils (HRDC) in the state.

For further information, call the county welfare office or 449-4540.

Visual Services Division

Visual Services provides specialized assistance for the visually impaired.

These services include but are not limited to providing mobility training, individualized independent living training, counseling, medical assistance for sight restoration, and purchase of aids and appliances.

If one has an eye condition that could cause blindness or defective vision without medical treatment or has a visual and employment handicap, that person is eligible for services.

Two criteria determine eligibility: the presence of a mental or physical disability which results in a handicap to employment, and a reasonable expectation that vocational rehabilitation services may benefit the individual.

Veterans' Affairs Division

The Veterans' Affairs Division assists veterans and dependents in applying for benefits under the laws administered by the Veterans Administration of the United States.

It assists a disabled veteran with a service or non-service related handicap to obtain medical care, support equipment, financial benefits, etc.

All veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces who need information or service should contact this agency.

Representatives of the Veterans' Affairs Division are located in each district office and will travel to wherever a veteran is located.
